BIG OLE BEERS

Large format, special release beers!

Cascade Elderberry Northwest Sour Red Ale

USA 8.5% 750ml $90

This live barrel of Northwest style sour red ale was initially aged for 6 months in French oak wine barrels, the additionally aged on elderberries. Sharp wine, dark raisins, red grapes and cereal notes greet you on the nose. Tart dark fruit and grapes on the palate lead to a sparkling crisp dry finish with hints of fresh elderberries and grape skins.

Deschutes Cultivateur Provision Saison

USA 8% 650ml $120

A Reserve release that's straight from the farmhouse, Cultivateur represents Deschute's own take on a barrel-aged classic. Blending saison, brett, and sour styles to build depth and complexity, Cultivateur offers a crisp, rustic flavour profile of pear and apricot.

Eel River "Triple Exultation" Barley Wine

USA 9.7% 650ml $50

Brewed in the tradition of English Old Ales, Eel River takes on a Barleywine Style twist, featuring a rich, caramelised sugar character and a delicate roasted not balanced by an aroma reminiscent of toffee and ripe fruit

Garage Project Hellbender

NZ 11.2% 650ml $65

A leviathan of a beer made with over a tonne of malt and a mountain of American hops. Brewed in late 2014 and conditioned in bottle until late 2015, this American Barleywine only gets better with age. Rich, resinous, pine and plum, it is a satisfying sipper

Garage Project Twilight of the Gods

NZ 13.6% 650ml $105

Twilight of the Gods or Götterdämmerung - Wagner's magnum opus, the climax to Der Ring des Nibelungen, the epic final battle to mark the end of everything - it doesn't get much bigger than this. Over a year in the making, this barrel aged co-fermentation of Riesling juice and strong blonde ale is powerful enough to keep developing for years to come. It ain't over til

Feral Broke Bach Mountain Red Flanders

WA 7% 750ml $90

Brewed by Feral for Boilermaker House, this classic flanders red style was aged in port barrels.
